

VICTORIA BATHS

The Victoria Baths on Hathersage road, Longhurst in Manchester are the finest historic swimming pool in the north of England. They were built in 1906 with three pools ( first class, second class and women ) and a turkish bath suite, in a flamboyant style with extensive decorative tilework, stained glass and mosaics. The baths were closed in 1993.

Concept and photographs Humberto Velez, graphic design Robin Wu, special thanks to Frank Gray

